STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Kerala Agrarian Relations Act, 1961 was struck down by the Supreme Court in its application to ryotwari lands transferred from the State of Madras to Kerala. The Act was further struck down by the High Court of Kerala in its application to lands other than estates in Malabar and Travancore. It was held that the provisions of the Act were violative of articles 14, 19 and 31 of the Constitution and that the protection of article 31A of the Constitution was not available to those lands, as they were not estates.

2. The protection of article 31A is available only in respect of such tenures as were estates on the 26th January, 1950, when the Constitution came into force. The expression "estate" has been defined differently in different States and, as a result of the transfer of land from one State to another on account of the reorganisation of States, the expression has come to be defined differently in different parts of the same State. Moreover, many of the land reform enactments relate to lands which are not included in an estate. It is, therefore, proposed to amend the definition of "estate" in article 31A of the Constitution by including therein lands held under ryotwari settlement and also other lands in respect of which provisions are normally made in land reform enactments. It is also proposed to amend the Ninth Schedule by including therein the State enactments relating to land reform in order to remove any uncertainty or doubt that may arise in regard to their validity.

3. The Bill seeks to achieve these objects.
